CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE HEMANT KUMAR
SRIVASTAVA
ORAL ORDER

4 01-09-2015 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

Petitioner happens to be husband of the deceased who died within seven years of her marriage in other than normal circumstances. There is allegation of illegal demand as well as torturing.

Accordingly, I am not inclined to release the petitioner on bail and hence, his prayer for bail in connection with Keshariya P.S. Case No. 107 of 2013 pending in the court of Sri

D. Kumar, Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Sadar at Motihari, East

Champaran stands rejected.

However, the concerned Magistrate is directed to commit the case of the petitioner to the court of sessions in accordance with law within four weeks from the date of receipt/production of copy of this order and after commitment, the concerned Sessions court shall expedite the trial of the petitioner and try to conclude the same as early as possible, preferably within nine months from the date of receipt of the record in sessions court. However, it is made clear that if the trial of the petitioner is not concluded within the above stated period, the petitioner may renew his prayer for bail before the learned trial court itself.
