The petitioners are languishing in jail in connection with Sherghaty P.S. Case No.242 of 2014 for the offences instituted under Section 392 of the Indian Penal Code.

The prosecution story, in brief, is that in the night of 30/31.8.2014 when the informant, who is a driver of the truck, was on route from Varanasi to Ranchi loaded wheat flour on the said truck arrived near bridge at about 3.30 A.M., suddenly a Sumo vehicle took over and forced the informant to stop the truck and three miscreants came out with pistol and they forcibly got the gate of the truck opened and boarded on the truck and took driving seat and thereafter they got down the informant and Khalasi both from the truck and took them in Sumo vehicle and tied their hands and legs including mouth and they dropped them near bushes. Thereafter, some people who were passer-by from that way set to informant and Khalasi both free by loosening their hands and legs. They also informed to Bodh Gaya Police and on such information, the police came and took the informant at the Police Station and informed the owner of the truck also.
