CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJENDRA KUMAR MISHRA
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 27-02-2015

No one appears on behalf of the petitioner to press this application when the case is called out. However, learned Government Advocate-V, appearing on behalf of the State, is present.

2. The present contempt application has been filed asserting the non compliance of the order dated 12.08.2010 passed in C.W.J.C. No.12958 of 2010, which was disposed of with the following observations/directions:

“In such view of the matter, in case such representation stating details of unpaid claims is filed by the petitioner within a period of four weeks from today along with the certified copy of the present order as also the copy of the relevant document, if any, in support of the claim, the grievances of the petitioner raised in the representation shall be considered in accordance with law expeditiously preferably within a period of four months on receipt of such representation so that the grievances of the petitioner may be settled without delay and upon consideration the admitted dues found payable may also be paid to the petitioner along with interest permissible under the rules. However, upon consideration if any of the claim or part of the claims is found not admissible the same shall be informed to the petitioner with reasons thereof.”

3. Learned Government Advocate-V, appearing on behalf of the State, submits that in compliance of the order dated 12.08.2010 passed in C.W.J.C. No.12958 of 2010, which is under contempt, the full payment of G.P.F. amount has already been paid to the petitioner vide two authority slips dated 14.08.2010 and 24.06.2011 amounting to the tune of Rs.6,99,364/- and Rs.39,326/- respectively, which would appear from Annexure-‘B’ to the show cause filed by the opposite party no.6, and a request has been made to the Accountant

General vide letter No.571 dated 24.05.2014 to issue an authority slip letter with regard to the gratuity and family pension of the petitioner. It is further submitted that a letter has also been sent to the petitioner vide letter no.572 dated 24.05.2014 asking the position of payment regarding retrial benefits or other dues but till today no reply or information has been given by the petitioner to the concerned office, which would appear from paragraphs-5, 6 and 7 of the show cause dated 04.09.2014, filed on behalf of the opposite party no.3

4. Since the order under contempt has been complied with by the concerned opposite party(s), no further action is required to be taken against the concerned opposite party(s). Accordingly, this contempt application stands disposed of.
