2 30-04-2015 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned

So far as the provision of Section 3(i)(x) of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 is concerned, learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the occurrence took place inside the school rather it is alleged that took place outside the school and there are no independent witness to support the case. Even, the principal and other staff members of the school did not endorse the allegations as made out by the informant.
