ORAL ORDER

2 08-01-2015

Heard both sides.

The petitioner Mithilesh Sah apprehends his arrest in Sangrampur P.S. Case No. 59 of 2014, registered for the offences punishable under Section 304B and other Sections of the Indian Penal Code and Sections 3/4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is the husband. The wife of the petitioner was treated in Primary Health Centre and thereafter referred to District Hospital Motihari where she died. When the informant came to know about the truth he filed a compromise petition.

It appears that the informant father of the deceased made specific allegation that the petitioner and others killed his daughter on account of non-fulfillment of demand of dowry.

Considering the facts aforesaid, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail. Accordingly, the same is rejected.

However, the petitioner, if so advised, may surrender before the court below within four weeks and the court below shall consider the prayer for bail of the petitioner without being prejudiced by this order.
