CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR TRIPATHI

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 18-02-2015

This Court is not inclined to interfere with the impugned order contained in Annexure- 2 for the simple reason that the limitation petition, which was filed before the Deputy Director, Welfare with the appeal does not disclose any valid and honest reason for delay in filing the said appeal. A bald kind of assertion has been made that after passing of the order by the District Programme Officer, Madhubani on 18.11.2013, petitioner became sick on 22.11.2013 and remained so till 29.6.2014.

The above limitation petition has been brought along with supplementary affidavit of the petitioner with prescription of a doctor, Dr. Ravi Bhushan Prasad. It is a false and misleading kind of prescription, which has been annexed to cover up the inaction on the part of the petitioner because no person can remain unwell with viral fever for more than 7 months. Obviously, this prescription was procured to cover up the omission and laches on the part of the petitioner to move the appellate authority.

Looking at the assertion in the limitation petition with a dishonest kind of prescription, which has been annexed by the petitioner to explain the delay, this Court is not inclined to interfere with the impugned order.

Writ is dismissed.
