ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 01-05-2015

01.05.2015

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

Nothing more is required to be said in the writ application of the petitioner over and above the decision, which has been notified and brought on record by the petitioner himself now in Annexure-9, where the terms and conditions of such engagement for the persons relating to the category of the petitioner has already been indicated. His claim and right will be strictly guided within the parameters of such engagement, taking in view that petitioner was not a government servant initially, but was conferred the benefit only by a judicial declaration.

Writ application is disposed off with above observation.
