CORAM: HONOURABLE JUSTICE SMT. ANJANA MISHRA
ORAL ORDER

3 20-05-2015

Since all these three criminal miscellaneous applications arise out of the same police station case, with consent of the learned counsel for the petitioners, the learned counsel for the informant and the learned counsel for the State, they have been heard together and are being disposed of by this common order.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioners, the learned counsel for the informant and the learned counsel for the State.

The petitioners, in Cr. Misc. Nos.19654, 19692 and 17617 all of the year 2015, are apprehending their arrest in connection with Dalsingsarai P.S. Case No.78 of 2015 for allegedly having committed the offences under Sections 147, 148, 149, 323, 324, 326A, 307, 504 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

It is submitted on behalf of the petitioners that the petitioners in the present applications have been made accused in the present case only because another case of similar nature had been lodged against the informant of the present case. It is further submitted that there is no specific role assigned against these petitioners in connection with the present case and, therefore, they deserve the privilege of anticipatory bail.

Learned counsel for the informant fairly submits that these three petitioners were not active participants.

Considering the aforementioned submissions and also the fact that the petitioners and the informant are agnates and have been on litigating terms, let all the three above named petitioners, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the court below within a period of three weeks from the date of receipt/production of a copy of this order, be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (Ten thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Dalsingsarai, District-Samastipur, in connection with Dalsingsarai P.S. Case No.78 of 2015, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.
