CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MIHIR KUMAR JHA
ORAL ORDER

2 30-10-2015 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

Having regard to the nature of allegation against the petitioner for the offences punishable under Sections-379, 411, 414 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code, this Court could have granted anticipatory bail to the petitioner, keeping in view that he was neither apprehended nor any recovery has been made from him, but what would really prevent this Court from doing so, is the criminal antecedent of the petitioner, inasmuch as, he himself in paragraph no. 3 of the application has admitted of being accused in at least three more cases of similar nature.

That being so, this Court is not inclined to grant the privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner and as such his prayer made herein is rejected.

Nonetheless, the petitioner will definitely have a right to seek regular bail, therefore, if the petitioner would surrender before the Court below and make a prayer for regular bail, his case would be decided on its own merits without being prejudiced by anything said in this order.
