Originally, case was registered under sections 307, 326, 498A of the IPC and 3/ 4 of the D.P. Act but subsequently, case was converted under section 304B of the IPC.

Admittedly, petitioner is husband of the deceased and in course of investigation, co-villagers of the petitioner, specifically, stated that deceased was caught in fire while she was cooking meal at her matrimonial home and soon thereafter, she was taken to Patna for treatment by the petitioner.

The statement of deceased was recorded at para 49 of the case diary in which she stated that this petitioner had set her on fire but the deceased admitted in her statement that she was taken to hospital by the petitioner and furthermore, she also admitted that she

Furthermore, I find that informant made statement before officer-in-charge, Begusarai police station and in the said fardbeyan informant had admitted that deceased took some medicine as a result of which her condition deteriorated and she died.

Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances as well as submissions of the parties, let the petitioner be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs 10,000/- with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lakhisarai in Suryagarha P.S.
