CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ASHWANI KUMAR SINGH
ORAL ORDER

3 07-01-2015 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the State.

The petitioner is the informant of Warisnagar (Mathurapur) P.S. Case No. 154 of 2013 registered for the offences punishable under sections 420, 468 and 471 of the Indian Penal Code.

In the instant writ petition filed under Articles 226 and 227 of the Constitution of India, a prayer has been made to direct respondent nos. 2 to 4 to conclude the investigation of the aforesaid case at the earliest and, in the alternative, if they are not found capable in concluding the investigation and producing the culprits before the court of law, then a direction be issued for handing over the investigation of the case to another agency like CBI.

Initially a complaint case was filed by the petitioner in the court of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Samastipur. Learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Samastipur referred the said complaint to the police under section 156(3) of the Code of Criminal procedure for investigation, pursuant to which the F.I.R. has been instituted.

I have looked into the allegations made in the F.I.R. I do not find the present case to be of national or international ramification. There is nothing extra ordinary about the present case for which a direction is needed to be issued by this Court. The informant of the case has no right to choose the investigating agency of his choice for the purpose of investigation of a case brought at his instance. It is well settled that at the stage of investigation the Court has no role to play.

I find no merit in the present writ petition. Accordingly, the application is dismissed.
