CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR TRIPATHI
ORAL ORDER

03. 03.03.2015

Heard counsel for the petitioner, counsel for the informant and counsel for the State.

The Registrar General is directed to institute an appropriate case against the deponent of the present bail application, namely, Chandani Kumari, because she has stated on oath that the petitioner has clean antecedent, which is a deliberate falsehood for the reason that not only in the order of the 1st Additional Sessions Judge, Nalanda, the factum of criminal history of the petitioner has emerged, but the above fact has also corroborated from paragraph 40 of the case-diary of the present case, which is Manpur P. S. Case No. 42 of 2012.

In view of the above a deliberate false statement has been made in the bail application by the deponent to derive undue advantage in the case.

This Order will be communicated to the Registrar General for taking action against the deponent.

Now, looking at the nature of allegation that the petitioner is the main assailant, who caused the death of the deceased by firing, prayer for bail of the present petitioner in connection with Manpur P. S. Case No. 42 of 2012, pending in the court of 1st Additional Sessions Judge, Nalanda at Bihar Sharif, is hereby rejected
