CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AHSANUDDIN
AMANULLAH

ORAL ORDER

3 13-07-2015 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned AC to AAG-2 on behalf of the State.

A counter affidavit has also been filed on behalf of respondents no. 2 to 5, 7 and 8. Let the same be kept on record.

The petitioner has moved the Court basically for a direction that proper F.I.R. should be lodged in the case and investigated by the police or C.I.D. of the State or any Agency and for bringing the culprits to book and to punish them. It appears that in the instant case the authorities have lodged F.I.R. being Dhanarua P.S. Case No. 283 of 2014 which has also been investigated and chargesheet submitted.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the investigation has not been proper and thus justice has not been done to the petitioner. However, in view of the fact that pursuant to a substantive F.I.R. and investigation, a formal chargesheet has also been submitted before the Court, he agrees that he shall move before the Court concerned by filing an appropriate application in accordance with law for redressal of his grievances.

In view of the aforesaid, the application stands disposed off with liberty to the petitioner to move before the Court concerned for redressal of his grievances. If such a petition is filed, the Court concerned shall take appropriate action and pass necessary orders after hearing the parties.

The application stands disposed off with the aforesaid observations.
