CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SAMARENDRA PRATAP SINGH

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 14-08-2015

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the respondents.

2. The petitioner is a P.D.S. dealer bearing license no. 22 of 2007 within Bakhari Block in the district of Begusarai.

3. He prays for setting aside the order dated 16.03.2013 passed by the appellate authority affirming the order dated 13.07.2013 passed by the licensing authority cancelling his license.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that there were two allegations against the petitioner. Firstly; he did not give items for the month of April, 2012. Secondly; he committed irregularities in distribution of K. Oil and food-grains.

5. In his reply, the petitioner submitted that he has annexed Bank draft for lifting the food-grains, which has to be distributed in the month of April, 2012. He further submits that he has annexed the statements of almost all the persons, who have made complaints. He further submits that the appellate authority has not considered the grounds taken in appeal.

6. I find that the consumers in their statements have stated that they do not have any complaint against the licensee.

7. In the result, this application is allowed and the impugned orders are set aside.
