4 28-09-2015 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel appearing on behalf of the State.

The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in connection with Chenari P.S.Case No. 120 of 2013 registered under Sections 364 and 384/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Earlier case diary was called for which has since been received.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is uncle of the accused Pintu Paswan, who is said to have eloped with the girl in question and/or had been kidnapped by him. It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that though the petitioner is named in the FIR he has no role to play in the disappearance of the girl and he has been named only on the basis of suspicion. It is further submitted that in the earlier case where it has been alleged by the informant that some persons were putting pressure on her husband to withdraw the case of kidnapping of her daughter the petitioner has also no role to play.

Learned counsel for the State after perusing the case diary submits that save and except the fact that the petitioner is the uncle of the accused Pintu Paswan there is no material on the record to implicate this petitioner.

Considering the entire gamut of the facts and circumstances and that there is no further material in the case diary, let the petitioner, above named, in the event of his arrest/surrender in the court below within a period of three weeks from the date of receipt/production of a copy of this order, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Rohtas at Sasaram, in connection with Chenari P.S.Case No. 120 of 2013, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.
