Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners submits that the F.I.R. was lodged after five days of the alleged occurrence and there is no specific allegation of assault against the petitioners, though there is such allegation against other co-accused persons.

I find substance in the submission made by learned counsel for the petitioners.

Let the petitioners, above named, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the court below within six weeks, be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Bettiah, West Champaran in connection with Chanpatia (Sirisia OP) P.S. Case No. 95 of 2009 subject to the condition laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

This is subject to the condition that the petitioners shall present themselves before the police/Court, as the case may be, as and when required and in the event of failure on their part to appear before the Court on two consecutive occasions, their bail bonds shall be liable to be cancelled.
