CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MIHIR KUMAR JHA
ORAL ORDER

2 06-10-2015

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

Having regard to the finding arrived at by the two of the authorities in holding the appointment of the petitioner on the post of Anganbari Sevika to be in violation of the Clause 4.7 of the Anganbari Sevika/Sahayika Guidelines,2011, this Court is not now going to sit in appeal on such finding.

The finding of the appellate authority in the impugned order, in fact, is that neither the petitioner was the resident of Poshak Area nor she was the permanent resident of the village where her appointment was made As a matter of fact, the appellate authority had also found that she was already married to one Sanjeev Kumar, who was an employee in a Government service in the Secretariat at Patna and that the appointment of the petitioner on the post of Anganbari Sevika in her own village (maeka) was not permissible. Such finding of fact cannot be now gone into by this Court and, therefore, this writ application must be and is accordingly dismissed.
