CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR TRIPATHI

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 20-03-2015

Since the programme is meant for the poorest of poor as well as meant for malnourished children and expectant mothers, who are going to form the future able bodied citizens of this country and if objective, for which the petitioner was hired, is not being achieved as is apparent from the explanation and the hearing which was held with regard to her conduct and behaviour, the least which was required to be done has been done. This Court will not sit in appeal over and above the findings of the statutory authorities saddled with the responsibility and come to a different conclusion in absence of any other cogent material.

Writ application is dismissed as this Court does not find that anything in violation of principles of natural justice or without providing opportunity of hearing was done. That is the only opening for the petitioner under Article 226 of the Constitution of India in such matters especially since petitioner is only an agent as an Anganbari Sevika.
