CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MIHIR KUMAR JHA
ORAL ORDER

2 21-01-2015 Learned counsel for the petitioner very fairly submits that the direction given by this Court has been complied with by the opposite parties though its resultant order has not gone in favour of the petitioner.

In the considered opinion of this Court, once this fact is admitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner himself that the direction, contained in the order of this Court in the connected writ application, has already been complied with, the issue as to whether the order passed by the opposite parties while complying the directions of this Court is correct or otherwise can never be gone into in contempt jurisdiction.

That being so, this contempt application is disposed of as having become infructuous with liberty to the petitioner to take appropriate steps against the order passed by the opposite parties as may be permissible in law.
