For the Opposite Party/s : Mr. Md.Fahimuddin(App)

CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PRABHAT KUMAR
JHA
ORAL ORDER

4 22-06-2015

Heard both sides.

The petitioners apprehend their arrest in Agam Kuan P.S. Case No. 05 of 2014, registered for the offences punishable under sections 498-A, 307 and other allied sections of the Indian Penal Code. Later on Section 302 of the Indian Penal Code was added.

The deceased before her death made an allegation that the petitioners, father-in-law and mother-in-law respectively along with her husband and other in-laws sprinkled K. Oil and set her ablaze.

It is submitted that during the course of investigation the witnesses in paragraphs 53 to 58 have stated that the petitioners, who happened to be the father-in-law and mother-in-law, are living separately and they have no concern with the family affairs of the deceased and her husband but from the record it appears that the victim has very specifically made allegation that the petitioners and others set her ablaze after pouring K. Oil and consequently, the victim died on account of burn injury.

Considering the facts aforesaid, I am not inclined to grant privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioners in connection with Agam Kuan P.S. Case No. 05 of 2014 pending in the court of the Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Patna City. This application for anticipatory bail is, accordingly, rejected.
