CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR TRIPATHI
ORAL ORDER

3 10-08-2015 Merely because the examiner had a second opinion while awarding marks on some of the answers of the candidate, which is in his pen, it does not become a case of judicial review.

The original answer sheet has been produced before this Court, which has been duly verified. There appears no mischief on perusal of the same. Therefore, nothing further is ordered to be done with regard to award of marks to the petitioner. This court will not allow the counsel nor the court will step into the shoes of the examiner.

Writ application is dismissed.

(Ajay Kumar Tripathi, J)
