2 23-02-2015 Heard the learned counsels for the petitioner, complainant and the State.

The petitioner being the husband of the complainant is apprehending his arrest in a complaint case in which processes have been directed to be issued after cognizance being taken for the offences punishable under Section 498(A) of the Indian Penal Code.

The accusation is of torture for non-fulfillment of dowry demand.

On instruction, it is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner is ready to keep the complainant as wife with full dignity and honour, a statement to that effect has been made in paragraph no. 13 of the petition which reads as follows:-

"13. That absolutely nothing as alleged in the complaint petition has even taken place. The petitioner and his family are respectable and peace loving persons and right from the day of her departure from their house they have been making efforts to bring her back and the petitioner is still ready to keep the complainant with full honour and dignity. The petitioner also sent a legal notice dated 17.05.2012 through his lawyer to the complainant to come back but all his efforts have gone in vein."

Learned counsel for the complainant submits that offer of the petitioner is acceptable to the complainant but she doubts the bonafide of the petitioner.

Both sides agree to appear before the learned court below on 09.03.2015 when the petitioner will take back the complainant to keep her as wife with full dignity and honour.
