CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MIHIR KUMAR JHA
ORAL ORDER

2 05-11-2015 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

Having regard to the nature of allegation against the petitioner for the offences punishable under Sections- 302/34 of the Indian Penal Code and that the petitioner happens to be the main assailant, in the sense that it is his wife, who has been found to be dead, in the room in which he was sleeping in the night, and that the materials collected in the investigation also have shown involvement of the petitioner, this Court would not be inclined to grant the privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

That being so, the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is hereby rejected.

Nonetheless, the petitioner will definitely have a right to seek regular bail, therefore, if the petitioner would surrender before the Court below and make a prayer for regular bail, his case would be decided on its own merits without being prejudiced by anything said in this order.
