CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

.....

9 15-01-2015 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Sunil Kumar Mandal, learned SC-24.

It has been claimed that the order of the writ court has not been complied with. The writ petition was disposed of granting liberty to the petitioner to file a representation and, thereafter, the authority concerned was directed to examine and pass appropriate order.

In this case, by filing a show cause, an order has been brought on record as Annexure-A to the show cause, which has been passed in compliance with the order of the writ court.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has tried to persuade the court that the order of the District Programme Officer (Establishment), Madhepura is patently illegal. In a contempt proceeding, it would be difficult for this Court to examine the correctness of the order of the District Programme Officer i.e. Annexure-A to the show cause. If the petitioner feels aggrieved with the order of the District Programme Officer, he would be at liberty to avail appropriate remedy.

With above observation and liberty, the petition stands disposed of.
