CORAM: HONOURABLE JUSTICE SMT. ANJANA PRAKASH

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 21-09-2015

The petitioners seek quashing of the order dated 03.08.2012 passed by the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Katihar in G.R. No. 416 of 2007 arising out of Mansahi P.S. Case No. 15 of 2007.

The case of the informant is that some irregularities had been committed by the persons who were authorities in the Panchayat Teachers Selection Process.

It has been submitted on behalf of the petitioners that one of the rejected candidates filed an application before the authority upon which all the records were scrutinized. Earlier appointments were cancelled and in such circumstances the government suffered no loss.

Hence the petitioners be exonerated from the prosecution.

Considering the aforesaid fact, the application is allowed and the order dated 03.08.2012 passed by the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Katihar in G.R. No. 416 of 2007 arising out of Mansahi P.S. Case No. 15 of 2007, is hereby set aside.

It is made clear that none of the petitioners will take any undue advantage from this order which has been passed for technical reasons and not on facts.
