ORAL JUDGMENT
Date: 14-10-2015

Some disputes must come to an end. The Court is not willing to allow every individual to keep raising issues as to which question and which answer is wrong when enough deliberations have already been done and based on the experts opinion and on a standard agreed kind of answers, the evaluation has been done and results declared.

Such issue cannot remain an ongoing issue leading to revision of evaluation of answer-sheets from time to time especially when such an examination was held way back in the year 2011.

Writ is dismissed.
