			BEFORE THE HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE S. TALAPATRA 05.02.2018 Heard Mr. S. S. Debnath, learned counsel appearing for the claimant-applicant as well as Mr. H. Deb, learned ASGI appearing for the respondents. By the common judgment and order dated 28.07.2015 this court modified the impugned judgment by fixing a different rate for some categories of land. Mr. S.S. Debnath, learned counsel has submitted that in terms of the said judgment the appellant-respondents have deposited the awarded amount. Now this petition has been filed by the referring claimant-applicant for granting the leave to receive the said amount from the Registry. Mr. H. Deb, learned ASGI has submitted that the appellant-respondents do not have any opposition if the money is disbursed to the claimant-applicant. There is no embargo for the claimant-applicant to receive the said amount as deposited by the appellant-respondents. In view of that, this petition stands allowed and disposed of. The Registry is directed to disburse the entire deposited amount to the claimant-applicant following the procedure. JUDGE
