HONBLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE DEEPAK GUPTA

---

None appears for the applicant.

However, I have considered all the facts stated in the application.

In view of the facts stated, it is apparent that even the mother of the minor has expired and the minor is now staying with her grandmother who has filed this application for release of Rs.2,50,000/-.

From the averments made in the petition, it appears that some amount has been incurred by the grandmother on tuition etc. and, therefore, a sum of Rs.50,000/-(rupees fifty thousand) is ordered to be released to the grandmother out of the deposited amount by remitting it to her bank account, details whereof along with photocopy of the first page of the passbook be filed in the Registry of this Court within four weeks from today.

As far as the remaining amount is concerned, that shall be kept in a fixed deposit as already ordered and the interest accruing thereupon shall be paid to the maternal grandmother for the maintenance of the minor. The interest on this sum will be more than Rs.6,000/- or Rs.7,000/- per month and, therefore, it is sufficient to meet the need of the minor.

CM Application stands disposed of.
