Order on Board

14/08/2015

1. By the impugned order dated 20.12.2006, the Third Additional Principal Judge, Family Court, Durg in M.J.C.No.13/2005 has directed for payment of Rs.600/- per month as maintenance to the respondent, which is sought to be challenged in this criminal revision.

2. Finding relationship between husband and wife is established and further finding that the respondent is unable to maintain herself and the petitioner is sufficient means to pay the maintenance to her is also established, the Family Court passed an order granting maintenance.

3. Taking into considering the specific finding recorded by the Family Court that relationship between husband and wife is established and the respondent is having sufficient reason to live separately and the petitioner is having sufficient means to maintain her.

4. The Family Court has rightly awarded the maintenance to the extent of Rs.600/- per month to the respondent.

5. I do not find any illegality in the impugned order warranting interference by this Court in its revisional jurisdiction in the said finding recorded by the Family Court as amount awarded is reasonable.

6. The criminal revision deserves to be and is accordingly dismissed.
