Heard.

The applicant is apprehending his arrest in connection with Crime No.339/2015 registered by Police Station-Kotwali, Distt.-Rajnandgaon (C.G.) for alleged commission of offence under Sections 452, 506, 34 of IPC.

2. Case of the prosecution is that the applicant and other co-accused entered the house with criminal intent committed offence of criminal trespass in the night and threatened.
3. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant is being falsely implicated. He was not present at the spot and he has not been named. The other co-accused has already been granted regular bail.
4. On the other hand, learned State counsel opposes prayer and submits that the vehicle, in which, the assailants had come and noted by the victim and it was found to be vehicle of the applicant.
5. Considering the submission of learned counsel for the parties, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the applicant. However, considering that the other co-accused has already been granted regular bail, if the applicant surrenders and applies for grant of regular bail, his application be considered and decided by the Court below as early as possible preferably within a period of three days.

6. Accordingly, the anticipatory bail application is rejected.
