Order On Board

30/06/2015

Prayer has been made in this petition for quashing the complaint lodged in the police station against the petitioner by respondents.

2. In the writ petition, there is no averment that on the complaint, police has registered offence against the petitioner. Even during the course of arguments, learned counsel for the petitioner could not satisfy this Court that taking cognizance of the complaint, police has registered offence.

3. The petition is without caution and misconceived and is accordingly dismissed.

4. In case, on the complaint, police registers offence against the petitioner, it will be open for the petitioner to take recourse to remedy as may be available to him under the law.
