Order On Board

14/07/2015

Heard on IA No.01, application for condonation of delay in filing the MCC.

2. The instant MCC has been preferred after 988 days of its limitation, as per the Office note.
3. The MCC has been preferred for restoration of WP(C) No.524 of 2011 which was dismissed for want of prosecution on 10.9.2012.
4. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the counsel who earlier represented the applicant did not inform regarding dismissal of the aforesaid writ petition. The applicant came to Bilaspur on 25.6.2015 and enquired about the status of the case, then he came to know about the dismissal of his petition. Thereafter he immediately applied for the certified copy of the order and after receiving it, he filed the instant MCC.
5. Though the application for condonation of delay is supported by affidavit, the fact is not mentioned whether for this alleged act any proceedings were initiated before the concerned authority regarding alleged professional misconduct.

6. On due consideration, as the instant MCC has been preferred after 988 days of its limitation, I am not inclined to condone the delay. Consequently, IA No. is dismissed as not maintainable. Consequently, MCC is also dismissed as barred by time. No order as to cost.
