Order On Board29/07/2015

Heard.

2. The applicant is apprehending her arrest in connection with Crime No.81/2015, registered at Police Station-Sahaspur Lohara District Kabirdham for alleged commission of offence under Section 498-A/34 of the IPC.

3. This is second application for grant of bail. First application was dismissed as withdrawn with liberty to move application for grant of regular bail before the Court below. Now, the applicant has filed second application by submitting that the applicant's case may be considered on merits.

4. Learned counsel for the applicant submitted that allegations of harassment and cruelty against the applicant are exaggerated, false and afterthought. Learned counsel for the applicant further submitted that the applicant has no role to play in the alleged cruelty against the complainant and allegations are against the other accused. He lastly submits that the applicant is a lady, therefore, she may be granted anticipatory bail.

5. On the other hand, learned State counsel submitted that the applicant withdrew her first application with liberty to move application for grant of regular bail before the Court below, therefore, second application is not maintainable. On merits, it is submitted that the allegations are mostly against the present applicant.

6. Considering the submission of learned counsel for the parties and nature of allegation, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the applicant.

7. Accordingly, the application is rejected.
