Hon'ble Shri Navin Sinha, Chief Justice
Hon'ble Shri P. Sam Koshy, J.

Judgment on BoardPer Navin Sinha, Chief Justice*14/08/2015

1. The present appeal arises from order dated 30.7.2015 dismissing Writ Petition (S) No. 2704 of 2015. The Learned Single Judge held that since the Director General of Police, Chhattisgarh did not lack statutory jurisdiction for suo motu revisionary powers under Clause 270 of the Chhattisgarh Police Regulations, the writ petition was not maintainable.
2. We have considered the submissions on behalf of the Appellant and find no reason to interfere with the impugned order at this stage.
3. If a show cause notice is not without jurisdiction, the writ petition will not be maintainable as premature. After the cause is shown, it is always possible that it may be accepted or it may not be accepted.

4. Needless to state that if the cause shown is not accepted, the authority is required to pass a reasoned and speaking order displaying application of mind, so that judicial review, if necessary is facilitated.

5. The writ appeal is dismissed with the aforesaid observations.
