Order On Board

01/09/2015

Heard.

(1) Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that Patta of nazul land was granted to petitioner's grandfather Banshraj Tiwari and a temple was constructed thereon and thereafter, in the maintenance Khasra, his name was recorded. After death of his grandfather, the petitioner has moved an application for recording his name in place of his grandfather on the basis of family settlement.

(2) Considering that the land in question appears to be a Nazul Land, the petitioner is required to approach the Collector. If the petitioner intends his name to be recorded, let a fresh representation be submitted before the Collector, Baloda Bazar. On such representation being made, the Collector shall make enquiry in the matter and pass appropriate order on the petitioner's representation. The decision may be taken as early as possible preferably within a period of four months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order subject to cooperation by the petitioner.

(3) Accordingly, the writ petition is disposed off.
