Order on BoardPer Navin Sinha, Chief Justice*08/09/2015

1. After some argument, leave is sought to withdraw the appeal for pursuing remedies before the Appellate Authority as observed by the Learned Single Judge.
2. Nothing in the present order can be deemed or construed as any opinion or observation by us on merits with regard to the grounds taken in the appeal. If the Appellant files an appeal before the Appellate Authority, it is required to be considered on its own merits in accordance with law without being influenced by our reluctance to entertain this appeal only because of availability of an alternative statutory remedy.
3. The Appellate Authority is required to pass a reasoned and speaking order disclosing application of mind.
4. The writ appeal is dismissed as withdrawn.
