2. Case of the prosecution, in brief, is that the applicant made interference in the government function and used force to deter the public servant from discharging his duty and also caused simple hurt to him.
3. Learned counsel for the applicant would submit that the applicant has not committed any offence and he has been falsely been implicated in crime in question as the said officer demanding Rs.500/- from the applicant, who has gone for making complaint. He would further submit that the applicant is in jail since 5.8.2015 and charge-sheet has already been filed and therefore, he may be enlarged on bail.

5. I have heard learned counsel appearing for the parties and perused the case diary.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case; further taking into consideration the nature and gravity of offence; role of the present applicant, his pre-trial detention and the fact that charge-sheet has already been filed, this Court is of the opinion that present is a fit case, in which, the applicant should be enlarged on regular bail.

7. Accordingly, the bail application filed under Section 439 of the Cr.P.C. is allowed.

8. It is directed that applicant shall be released on bail on his furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs.25,000/- with one surety in the like sum to the satisfaction of the concerned trial Court, for his appearance as and when directed.s
