Versus

- State of Chhattisgarh through P.S. Pandri, Civil and Revenue District Raipur (C.G).
--- Respondent

18.11.2015	Mr. P.P. Sahu, counsel for the applicant. Mr. Vivek Singhal, Panel Lawyer, for the State. As per the prosecution version, a report was lodged on 30.01.2015 by the mother of prosecutrix alleging that her daughter, aged about 5 years, came to her weeping . On enquiry, the victim disclosed the fact that the applicant used to touch her private parts and also committed sexual intercourse with her. On the basis of the said report, offence was registered and the applicant was taken into custody. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant has been falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence, therefore, he may be enlarged on bail. Per contra, learned State counsel opposes the bail. Considering the evidence available in the case diary and looking to the allegations against the applicant that he used to touch the private parts of the girl of aged about 5 years and also committed sexual assault on her, I am not inclined to release the applicant on bail. Accordingly, this bail application is dismissed. Sd/- GOUTAM BHADURI JUDGE
