Order On BoardPer NAVIN SINHA, C.J.*27/04/2015

1. The present appeal arises from order dated 10.4.2015 in Writ Petition (S) No. 1263 of 2015 declining to interfere with the order for transfer and rejection of the representation with regard to the same pursuant to an earlier order of the Court.

2. Having considered the submissions on behalf of the Appellant, we find no reason to interfere with the order under appeal for reasons discussed in the same.

3. Considering that it is an intra-district transfer only, if the Appellant joins within ten days from today at the transferred place of posting and submits any fresh representation with regard to the difficulties expressed by him, the authorities in their administrative wisdom would be at liberty to consider the same. If the Appellant does not join the transferred place of posting within ten days from today, it would be open for the Respondents to act in accordance with law.

4. The appeal is disposed.
