Order On Board

08/05/2015

1. The petitioners have assailed the legality and validity of the impugned advertisement whereby the concerned Collector cum District Mission Director, Rajiv Gandhi Shiksha Mission, has issued advertisement for recruitment of Block Resource Person or Cluster Academic Coordinator, as the case may be, on deputation.
2. It has been argued that pursuant to process of recruitment initiated in June, 2012 by issuing advertisement, the petitioners were appointed on deputation for a period of 5 years, therefore, without passing any order with respect to curtailment of their period of deputation, the respondents are not entitled to proceed to make fresh selection for the same posts. Reliance is placed in the matter of Ashok Kumar Ratilal Patel Vs.

Union of India and another {(2012) 7 SCC 757} and the order passed by this Court in Sagir Khan Vs. State of Chhattisgarh & another {WP(S) No.2741/2012, decided on 2nd September, 2014}.

3. Per contra, Shri Kachhawaha, learned counsel appearing for the respondent – Rajeev Gandhi Shiksha Mission, would submit that the petitioners' appointment was for a maximum period of 5 years, without mentioning minimum period of deputation, therefore, the petitioners have no case to challenge the impugned advertisement. He would further submit that even otherwise the concerned Collector having not taken any adverse action against the petitioners, there is no cause of action for filing the present writ petitions.
4. Rebutting the above submission of Shri Kachhawaha, learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that as soon as the appointments pursuant to impugned advertisement are made, the petitioners' deputation will be cancelled, therefore, the advertisement itself would amount to adverse order against the petitioners.
5. In view of the submission made by Shri Kachhawaha that no adverse action has yet been taken against the petitioners and for the fact that the order of appointment issued in favour of the petitioners itself stipulates that if the performance of the petitioners is not satisfactory, their deputation can be put to an end before the prescribed period, these writ petitions are disposed of with an observation that as and when the respondents desire to put the petitioners' deputation to an end under the instructions issued by the State Government in its circular dated 30th May, 2014, the respondents shall give prior notice to the petitioners and necessary orders shall be passed after giving proper opportunity of hearing to each of the petitioners. Till the action, as indicated above, is taken, the petitioners shall be allowed to continue on the posts.
