Order On Board

21/07/2015

Heard on admission.

2. Challenge in the present revision is to the order dated 14.05.2015 passed by the Judge, Family Court, Mahasamund (C.G.) in M.Cr.C.No.89/2014, directing the applicant to pay Rs.5,000/- per month as maintenance to the respondent.
3. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant is earning Rs.9,000/- per month and therefore it would be difficult for him to pay Rs.5,000/- to the non-applicant. He further submits that respondent herself has left the company of the applicant and as such, she is not entitled for any maintenance.
4. A bare perusal of the impugned order goes to show that the applicant has harassed the non-applicant for demand of dowry and under the compelling circumstances she had left the house of the applicant. The order impugned further reflects the fact that financial condition of the non-applicant is not as such by which she could maintain herself and rather there is a finding recorded by the Court below that the monthly income of the applicant is about Rs.11,000/-.

5. Considering these aspects of the matter, this Court is of the considered view that the order impugned is strictly in accordance law and there is no infirmity or illegality in the same warranting any interference by this Court.
6. The revision is accordingly dismissed at the admission stage itself.
