2. Case of the prosecution, in brief, is that, present applicants along with three other co-accused persons alleged to have assaulted and murdered Jamuna Prasad in the intervening night of 22-23/04/2015 and also destroyed the evidence.

3. Learned counsel for the applicants would submit that applicants have not committed any offence and have been falsely implicated in offence in question. He would further submit that there is no evidence to connect the applicants in offence in question. He would further submit that no useful purpose would be served by keeping them in jail. He would lastly submit that charge sheet has been filed and applicants are in jail since 24/04/2015, therefore, they may be released on bail.

4. On the other hand, learned counsel for the State would oppose the bail application.

5. I have heard learned counsel appearing for the parties and perused the case diary.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case; further taking into consideration the nature and gravity of offence; the manner, in which, applicants are alleged to have murdered Jamuna Prasad and dead body has been thrown and the evidence available has been tried to be destroyed, this Court is not inclined to release the applicants on regular bail.
