Heard.

2. The applicants are apprehending their arrest in connection with Crime No.71/2015 registered at Police Station–Kapu, District Raigarh (CG) for alleged commission of offence under Section 294, 323, 506, 452/34 of IPC.

3. Prosecution case is that the applicants entered the house of Mahendra and assaulted him with club, fists and legs.

4. Learned counsel for the applicants submits that the applicants have been falsely implicated. In fact, no incident happened inside the house of Mahendra and the injuries are simple in nature. He next submitted that one of the accused-Neelawati has already been granted anticipatory bail by this Court in

5. On the other hand, learned State counsel opposes the bail application.

6. Taking into consideration the statement of Mahendra and the injury report, it is not a fit case to grant anticipatory bail to the applicants.

7. Accordingly, the application is rejected.

8. Learned counsel for the applicants submits that the applicants intend to surrender and apply for grant of regular bail before the Court below, therefore, he prayed that the Court below may be directed to consider and decide their regular bail application on the same date.

9. It is directed that if the applicants apply for grant of regular bail before the Court below, the Court below shall consider and decide the same as early as possible.
