Vinod Deshlahare son of late Vishnu Deshlaare aged about 35 years resident of village Mohandi Thana Purani Bhilai-3 District Durg (CG)

---Applicant

Versus

State of Chhattisgarh through District Magistrate Durg District Durg (CG)

---Non-applicant

For Applicant	:	Mr. Ajit Singh, Advocate
For Non-applicant	:	Mr. Dilmanrati Minj, Dy. Govt. Advocate

Hon'ble Shri Justice Sanjay K. Agrawal

Order on Board18/11/2015

1. This is second bail application filed under Section 439 of the Cr.P.C. for grant of regular bail to the applicant, who has been arrested in connection with crime No.247/2015 registered at Police Station Bhilai-3 District Durg (C.G.), for the offence punishable under Section 34(2) of the Chhattisgarh Excise Act.

2. Case of the prosecution, in brief, is that, 18 bulk liters of illicit liquor was seized by the police from the present applicant.

3. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that first bail application of the applicant has been dismissed as withdrawn on the ground that two excise criminal cases have been pending against him. Now, in both excise criminal cases, applicant has been acquitted and the copy of orders have been filed along with this application, therefore, the applicant may be released on regular bail.

4. On the other hand, learned counsel for the State would submit that in earlier two excise criminal cases, present applicant has been acquitted.

5. I have heard counsel appearing for the parties and perused the case diary.

6. Taking into consideration the condition incorporated in Section 59-A(ii) of the C.G. Excise Act, 1915, and bearing in mind the principles of law laid down in Banti Singh v. State of Chhattisgarh (M.Cr.C. No.6846 of 2014, decided on 05.01.2015), if the facts of present case are examined, it is apparent that there is no criminal antecedent of the present applicant and only 18 bulk liters of illicit liquor has been seized from him which is more than prescribed limit of 5 bulk liters and he is in custody from 19/06/2015 and case is triable by the Judicial Magistrate First Class and trial is likely to take some more time and further taking into account the nature and gravity of offence and plea raised by the applicant, I am of the opinion that present is the fit case, in which, the applicant should be enlarged on regular bail.

7. Accordingly, the second bail application filed under Section 439 of the Cr.P.C. is allowed. It is directed that on furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs.25,000/- with one surety in the like sum to the satisfaction of the concerned Court for his appearance as and when directed, the applicant shall be released on bail, subject to following conditions:

- That, the applicant shall furnish a specific undertaking that while on bail, he will not commit any excise offence, otherwise bail granted to him shall be liable to be cancelled and shall co-operate the prosecution during trial.
- That, the accused/applicant shall make himself available for interrogation before the concerned Investigating Officer as and when required and the accused/applicant shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him/her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer.

- That, the accused/applicant shall not act, in any manner, which will be prejudicial to fair and expeditious trial.

8. Certified copy as per rules.
