3. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that other co-accused has been granted bail by this court in M.Cr.C. No.5929 of 2015 on 5/11/2015 and applicant's case is similar to that of the co-accused who has been granted bail, therefore, the applicant may be released on bail.
4. Learned State counsel opposes the prayer for grant of bail.
5. Perused the statement of the witnesses. In merged statement also the allegation of demand of dowry are attributed to this applicant who is son-in-law. It also shows amount of Rs.20,000/- was also deposited in the account of applicant. Taking into account evidence available against this
