Order on Board

27/10/2015

1. Since the question involved in these review applications are common and only dates may differ, they have been heard and are being disposed by a common order. The facts and dates shall be taken from Review Petition No. 59 of 2015.
2. The review application has been filed to review order dated 15.6.2015 passed in Writ Petition (C) No. 958 of 2015.
3. Heard Shri Prafull N Bharat, Learned Counsel for the Petitioner.
4. Shri Bharat submits that according to the scheme, the Petitioner was only required to supply paddy to rice millers for milling. The milled rice from the paddy was then required by the millers to be supplied to the Food Corporation of India and the Chhattisgarh State Civil Supplies Corporation within the time required for the purpose. The submission therefore that the Petitioner had no objection to the extension of time was not applicable at all to the knowledge of the Respondents and was inadvertent.

5. We have considered the submissions on behalf of the Petitioner.

6. On the own showing of the Petitioner, it had no role to perform with regard to receiving milled rice from the paddy supplied by it within any time specified and the rice milled from the paddy was required to be supplied to the Food Corporation of India or the Chhattisgarh State Civil Supplies Corporation who do not appear to be complaining with regard to the impugned order.

7. We therefore find no reason to entertain the review applications.

8. The review applications are dismissed.
