2. Case of the prosecution, in brief, is that, the applicant and co-accused are alleged to have robbed one mobile set and Rs.500/- from victim Raju Patel on 7.5.2014 and thereby committed the aforesaid offence.

3. Learned counsel for the applicant would submit that applicant has not committed any offence and he has been falsely implicated in the case. 6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case; further taking into consideration the nature and gravity of offence; material collected by the prosecution and recovery of robbed mobile from the present applicant, this Court is not inclined to release the applicant on regular bail.
