PER COURT :

1. In the first session today, the petitioner had sought deletion of respondent Nos. 3 & 4 which was permitted at the risk of the petitioner. Deletion has been carried out. This matter was kept in the second session today, at the request of the parties since the petitioner Nos. 1, 2 & 3 had arrived at a settlement with respondent No. 1.

4. Shri Nagargoje, Shri Bhavthankar and Shri Sakolkar, learned Advocates submit that the concerned parties are also present in the Court whom they identify. The learned Advocates further state that deleted respondent Nos. 3 & 4 are unconnected with this compromise. This compromise would not in any way affect their rights.
