CORAM : T. V. NALAWADE &SMT. I. K. JAIN, JJ.*DATE : 23rd March, 2015*PER COURT :

1. The application is filed for relaxation of condition of surety for availing furlough leave. The affidavit shows that furlough leave was granted on 17.12.2012 and direction was given to furnish surety bond and P.R. Bond of Rs.10,000/- each. The said furlough leave was not availed. As per rule, furlough leave remains in existence for a period of four months after the sanction order. Thus, it appears that as per rule, the said order cannot be used. The present applicant can again apply for furlough leave. This Court hopes that new application will be considered sympathetically.

2. The application is accordingly disposed of.

3. Fees of the counsel appointed for the applicant is quantified to Rs.2,000/-.
