CORAM : M.T. JOSHI, J.

DATE : APRIL 08, 2015

PER COURT :

Heard.

2] Perused the order of learned District Judge.
The order of learned District Judge is according to law. In fact, present appellant is also a purchaser of the very same property. In the circumstances, there is no merit in the appeal.

3] The Appeal from Order is, therefore,
dismissed.

4] Parties would be at liberty to avail such recourse as may be available under the law, regarding possession of a specific portion of the property by way of partition or otherwise, as is provided by the law.

5] In view of dismissal of the appeal, Civil Application does not survive and stands disposed of as such.
